

Live in Aruba... This Heaven on Earth can be yours

Aruba is attractive for its warm weather, people, lifestyle and investment security. Emigrating to the Happy Island to enjoy this exclusive Caribbean Paradise is probably your best choice. Give yourself a chance of living at the beach.

Make your dream come true with this simple steps.

Residence permit without a work permit

If you want to apply for a residence permit without a work permit, you will need:

Bank account statement. The applicant must prove that is financially self-sustainable, that he/she won't be a financial burden to the government or local community.

Home and work addresses for the last ten years.

Reasons for wanting to be a resident of Aruba.

Police clearance (Certificate of good conduct, not older than two months).

Residence permit and work permit.

Besides the above requirements, applicants for a permanent residence and work permit must have:

A passport valid for Aruba.

Three passport photographs good likeness

A valid vaccination certificate for smallpox, not more than three years old.

A medical declaration of not suffering from any contagious disease or mental sickness, issued within 30 days before the trip.

A proof of payment of the required legal fee.